

LONG ISLAND / POLITICS

NUMC chairman Michael Mirotznik has resigned, officials say

Mirotznik, a Bellmore attorney, did not give a reason for his resignation, effective immediately.

By Celeste Hadrick

celeste.hadrick@newsday.com

Updated January 26, 2018 8:20 PM

PRINT SHARE

Michael Mirotznik, chairman of the Nassau University Medical Center board, resigned his volunteer post Friday afternoon, effective immediately, county and hospital officials confirmed.

Mirotznik, a Bellmore attorney, did not give a reason for his resignation. He could not be reached for comment.

"It was a surprise letter, but he's always been a dedicated board member for many years," said NUMC spokesman Todd Shapiro. "We wish him the best for his service to the people of Nassau County."

County Executive Laura Curran, a Democrat, has the authority to appoint Mirotznik's replacement to head the 15-member board of directors for the public benefit corporation that runs the East Meadow hospital and associated facilities. Her appointment does not need confirmation by the county legislature.

Curran spokesman Michael Martino said, "The county executive accepted his resignation and will move forward to find a well-qualified candidate to put that hospital on track."

Mirotznik had been appointed by former Republican Nassau County Executive Edward Mangano in 2014.

Board member Bobby Kumar Kalotee, a former chairman who was reappointed to the board last year, said he wished Mirotznik well.

"He did his best under the best or worst circumstances. Now it's up to the county executive to appoint whomever she wants. Hopefully she chooses me," Kalotee said. "If she chooses me it will be an honor for me to serve for her."

Get The 1600 newsletter

Get our inside look at the White House and goings on in the Donald Trump administration.

Email address Sign up

By clicking Sign up, you agree to our privacy policy.

During her county executive campaign, Curran last year bashed the Nassau Health Care Corp. for patronage hiring and a lack of transparency, calling it "another symbol of the culture of corruption."

By Celeste Hadrick

celeste.hadrick@newsday.com

Celeste Hadrick covers government and politics in Nassau County.

SHARE ON FACEBOOK SHARE ON TWITTER

Comments

Comments section is temporarily on hold. Here's why.

NEWSDAY RECOMMENDS

\$80M development project back on town agenda

Suffolk again gets 'F' for air quality, report says

Officials: City may miss payroll after bond fails

Long Beach cuts bus service, looking at layoffs

ICE: 225 arrested locally on immigration violations

TOP STORIES

- \$10M settlement for Tankleff approved by Suffolk pols
- 'Reaper,' alleged East Coast MS-13 kingpin, arraigned
- NUMC chief and president Politi fired by board
- Sinnreich says he cautioned town against 'bogus' proposal
- Biden honors Ller shot after stopping rape attempt
- First came the beer ... behind LI hamlet's restaurant boom

LATEST LONG ISLAND NEWS

'Reaper,' alleged East Coast MS-13 kingpin, arraigned	$10M settlement for Tankleff approved by Suffolk pols	Biden honors Ller shot after stopping rape attempt
Sinnreich says he cautioned town against 'bogus' proposal	State: Blue Angels to headline Bethpage Air Show	Hart seeks to reassure immigrant communities

Quick Links

- Subscribe
- Today's paper
- Newsday Charities
- Careers
- Archives
- Funbook
- Obituaries
- Crosswords
- Manage my Newsday
- Sitemap

Partners

- News 12
- am New York
- Newsday Cars
- Newsday Homes
- Newsday Jobs
- Optimum
- Newsday Connect
- Hometown Shopper
- News12 Varsity

News

- Long Island
- Sports
- Opinion
- Politics
- News
- Business
- Towns
- High school sports

More

- Things to Do
- Entertainment
- Restaurants
- Family
- Travel

